

VERIGUARD FIRE & SECURITY: SINGLE SOURCE FOR FIRE, SECURITY AND LIFE SAFETY SERVICES

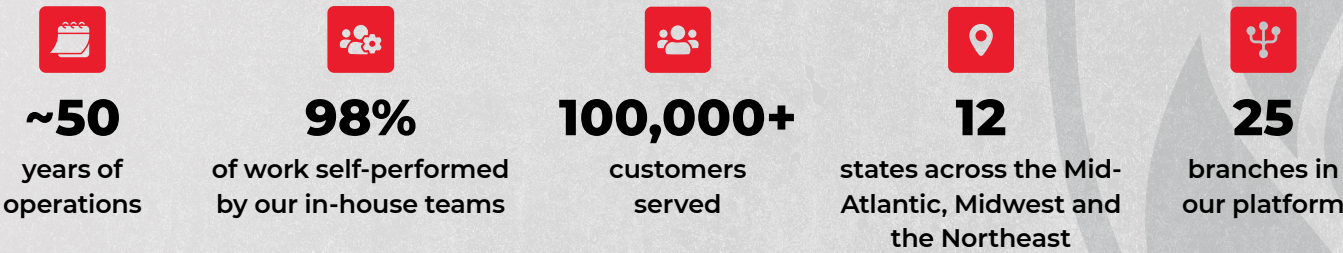

NEW NATIONAL IDENTITY. SAME TRUSTED BRANDS.

Veriguard Fire & Security is a new national identity that unites a growing family of local fire, security and life safety companies. It provides a shared platform, bringing together our expertise, resources and geographic reach, while preserving the local relationships and reputation for exceptional services that customers know and trust.

OUR BRANDS:

VERIGUARD AT A GLANCE

WHAT'S NEW

- ✓ A shared national identity: Veriguard Fire & Security
- ✓ A more integrated service experience, especially for multi-region and multi-brand customers
- ✓ Greater scale and expertise as our customer needs evolve

WHAT STAYS THE SAME

- ✓ Same products and services our customers rely on
- ✓ Services delivered by the same teams, with no interruptions
- ✓ Local relationships and exceptional service

As our family of operating companies has expanded significantly, now is a natural time for us to create a unified brand identity that represents our consistent, high standard of service and commitment to customers across the markets we serve. While Veriguard is a new name, it stands for the same company, people, products and services our customers have relied on for decades. Our local brands will remain close to the facilities and communities they serve, while the Veriguard platform offers an integrated offering with the scale and expertise to support customers as their needs evolve.”
